Red Pill

redpilldev.tech/

Community Lead

I grew the Discord communities for Red Pill's play-to-earn games, Chimeras and TrainCraft. My team and I organized activities and contests, created informative channels and private clubs, and collaborated with a technical moderator to make the servers fun and secure. With our efforts, we added +1000K members to each server, bringing the communities to life.

Community Lead

In my current role at Film.io, I manage the growth of our Discord community through a combination of organic communication and engaging content. By collaborating with other projects and developing a comprehensive content plan, we have seen a substantial increase in membership, with over 500K new members joining our community. As a result of my efforts, our Discord chats have become more active and engaged on a daily basis, fostering a strong sense of community among our members.

Thai Expats

t.me/thaiex

Moderator

As the manager of the Thai Expats Telegram channel, I leveraged weekly polls and daily news discussions to engage with our community of expats living in Thailand. These efforts helped to increase our membership by over 200 long-term members. This experience taught me valuable skills in community engagement, content creation, and data analysis that would be an asset to any team.

SEX NFTCommunity Lead

My experience managing the "SEX NFT" Discord community was exceptional. I oversaw daily discussions, games, and contests while leading a team of eight moderators to create a welcoming space for over 100K members. This experience taught me valuable skills in community management, team leadership, and project coordination.
