How to play multiplayer coinflip game?

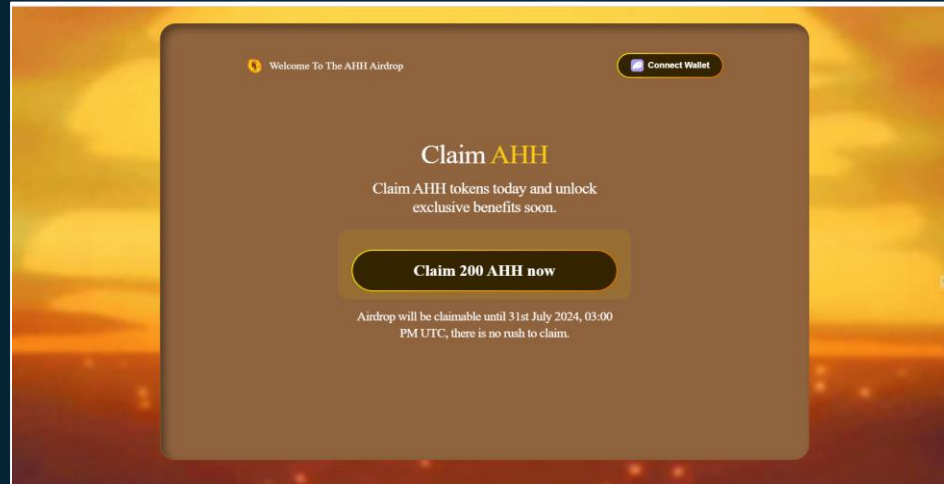

Using this platform we will bet who wins using coinflip game. Users will join the room and when all the players are joined into the room then start betting.

Tokens will be locked on the betting program and when the betting is finished winners will be distributed the tokens from the platform.

Platform will get fee from bets.

Marketing

In the marketing stage we will advertise the CW Utility and games as well as user let test the utilities using airdropped tokens.

Staking?

CW can also be earned by token holders by directly staking CW tokens into the token staking contract.

The staking pool will emit a fixed daily reward to be distributed to all pool participants based on their pro-rata stake. Pro-rata rewards may shrink or grow depending on the pool's participation.
