MY EXPERIENCE

In October 2021, I decided to change my field of activity and do something that brings me pleasure - design. I studied at the Skillbox school and started freelancing while looking for a job.

On a freelance, I carried out orders to create corporate identity, design pages in social networks, booklets, business cards, brochures, packaging design and other graphic services. But I dream of getting into a project where I can learn new things and show myself.
