I am really thrilled to submit my application for the post of Graphic Designer. I am confident in my abilities to contribute and create excellent visual solutions as a highly creative and professional graphic designer with 9 years of experience in the area.

Throughout my work, I've showed a love of design, a keen eye for detail, and a solid knowledge of design concepts. My past professional experience has given me exposure to a wide range of tasks, from branding and marketing materials to website design and digital media. Because of my diversified experience, I've developed a dynamic approach to design, allowing me to adjust my creativity to match the individual goals and aims of each project.

Thank you for taking the time to examine my application.

Sincerely,

Joana Racel Cruz
