WORK EXPERIENCE

Freelance: 2019 to today

From the beginning of my career, I freelance because to be part of other stories, help my customer to win. I started working as a freelancer with a range of different clients who allowed me to learn in many different fields, thus broadening my skills.

Email Marketing: 2020 - 2022

For two years, I was part of an email marketing expert, using a different method of email to increase sales. Where I created highly successful campaign strategies for several of the company's clients, putting creativity, innovation, and strategy into practice.
