Frequently, justice and love are viewed as distinct, if not antagonistic, values and goals. On the one hand, justice is commonly portrayed as a harsh judgment, as unforgiving punishment. On the other hand, love is viewed as sentimentality, in which wrongdoing goes unpunished. The Bible presents a unique perspective on justice and love. Both are essential aspects of God's personality. God is a righteous judge (Psalm 7:7; 2 Timothy 4:8). At the same time, God is love (1 John 4:8)

As living eyewitness accounts of Christ, we advocate for justice and love in all of its forms through campaigns.

As God's children and disciples, we are called to demonstrate all of the following components in order to live in harmony and prosperity as we progress in our individual lives.

FINDING JESUS' JOY WITHIN ONESELF

Joy is not a general state of being; it must be cultivated and practiced. While happiness is temporary and random, joy can be nurtured and grown. Regularly, joyful people adhere to these Biblical habits. The Bible makes it abundantly clear that incorporating specific disciplines into our daily lives will result in an increased sense of happiness.

HOSPITALITY

To welcome someone and to provide a haven for a stranger is an expression of and witness to God's great drama of redemption, a sign of the new world that Jesus Christ has inaugurated – a world that God is welcoming and reconciling through Christ.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SHOWS GOD'S LOVE

In our day, Jesus' command to "go and make disciples" echoes in the changing scenarios and ever new challenges to the Church's mission of evangelization, and all of us are called to take part in this new missionary "going forth"... Pope Francis The Joy of the Gospel "Thus the Church's social teaching is itself a valid instrument of evangelization. As such, it proclaims God and His mystery of salvation in Christ to every human being, and for that very reason, reveals man to Himself. In this light, and only in this light, does it concern itself with everything else: the human rights of the individual, and in particular of the "working class," the family and education, the duties of the State, the ordering of national and international society, economic life, culture, war and peace, and respect for the life from the moment of conception until death." St. John Paul II Centesimus Annus

MATTHEW 22:37-40

Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

COMMUNICATING WITH OTHER CATHOLICS ABOUT YOUR FAITH

By sharing the gift of faith that has been bestowed upon us, we can assist others in growing in faith. This section discusses the most crucial aspect of a New Evangelization program: how to grasp Catholics who are no longer exercising their faith.
