Research and Policy

PROFILE

A working professional with experience in research and policy analysis and a track record of developing and influencing policy across various sectors in Northern Ireland. An excellent communicator with the ability to write persuasive reports, present verbally and build relationships with key stakeholders.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Oct 2021 – present: Staff Officer: Department of Health

This role involves supporting senior colleagues with policy development including research, report writing and responding to ministerial questions. I am involved with stakeholder engagement and responding to consultations.

- Feb 2021 – Oct 2021: Executive Officer: Invest NI

I was project manager of a consultancy framework which involved building relationships with stakeholders, securing budgets and managing team inboxes. I also liaised with the Department for the Economy, responding to FOI requests and ministerial questions.

- Dec 2021 – March 2021: Research Officer: Volunteer Now

I was lead project manager of a social action pilot research programme which was ran by a third sector organisation and funded by the Department for the Community. This project involved qualitative research through surveys, focus groups and interviews and writing an advisory report to the DfC based on the research data.

- Oct 2020 – present: Research Assistant for CAJ (Voluntary Role)

In this role I assist different researchers on their projects, conducting mostly desk based research on legislation, case law and policy. I also edit and contribute a written part of their quarterly newsletter.

- Jan 2019 – June 2019: Constituency Office (Green Party)

In this internship role, I assisted Clare Bailey and her team with the drafting and writing of their election manifesto. I assisted with research on policy and constituents needs. I handled queries and assisted with marketing.

- April 2016 – Dec 2020: Manager (KFC)

In this role I was responsible for hiring staff, managing staff, conflict management and customer relations. I was lead on various projects and helped bring in new franchise wide policies.
