

James Hiro

Takeshita Street, Shibuya City, Tokyo / unicornjameser@gmail.com / 1 239 494 6695

Summary

My name is James Hiro from Japan.

As a web developer, I have experience for website development with 5 years.

During the days, I have work without stop and I get best experience and success through my business.

Performing planned tasks, high quality, fast speed, and real-time response, honesty are my default advantages.

Web development is my love and my life.

Education

IT, Software Engineer

Science University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Tokyo
12/2017

Bachelor's degree of Computer Science

I have learn about software engineering.

My graduation thesis was "Problems and solutions in credit transaction collateral and security technology based on blockchain"

As head of the Academic Year Student Mathematics Team, I was lead my talent members.

I have top marks in my class and get the bachelor's degree of computer science.

Experience

Tokyo IT customer consultation and outsourcing site development plan

Outsourcing development and customer service member, Tokyo, Tokyo
12/2017 - 04/2022

For the next year, I worked as a beginner on the outsourced website development team.

I participated in 5 site development, 3 large-scale site error eradication, and 2 external site expansion plans.

For the last two years, I was a core member of the subcontractor site development team and a candidate member of the customer service department.

Leading 5 fixed team members and 2 apprentices, participated in 8 individual site development projects, and participated in 2 large-scale cooperative development projects.

Skills

Maintenance Management, Full-stack development, Front-End Development

Languages

English, Japanese

