Farshad Shabrandi

About me

I'm Farshad, a graphic designer and senior logo designer with five years of professional experience. Design has always fascinated me because of the vast and complex process of problem-solving and creating something that communicates non-verbally. I enjoy swimming, movies, music, and reading in my daily routine. I believe a successful design is one that effectively conveys its message to its audience.

Bejna is an online fabric and clothing store. In Kurdish, 'Bejna' means 'a tall person'. For the Bejna logo, we've aimed to create a stretched and tall logotype. The logo icon features a symbolic flower, which is an abstract twist on the first letter of the brand

Shano is an IT services and computer products company with an online store and a chain of physical outlets. The company has over 100 employees and operates 3 active branches. The logo for Shano creatively incorporates the meaning of the word 'Shano,' which means 'theater' in Kurdish. The typography of the word has been designed with purposeful twists to resemble a masquerade mask, symbolizing the theater.

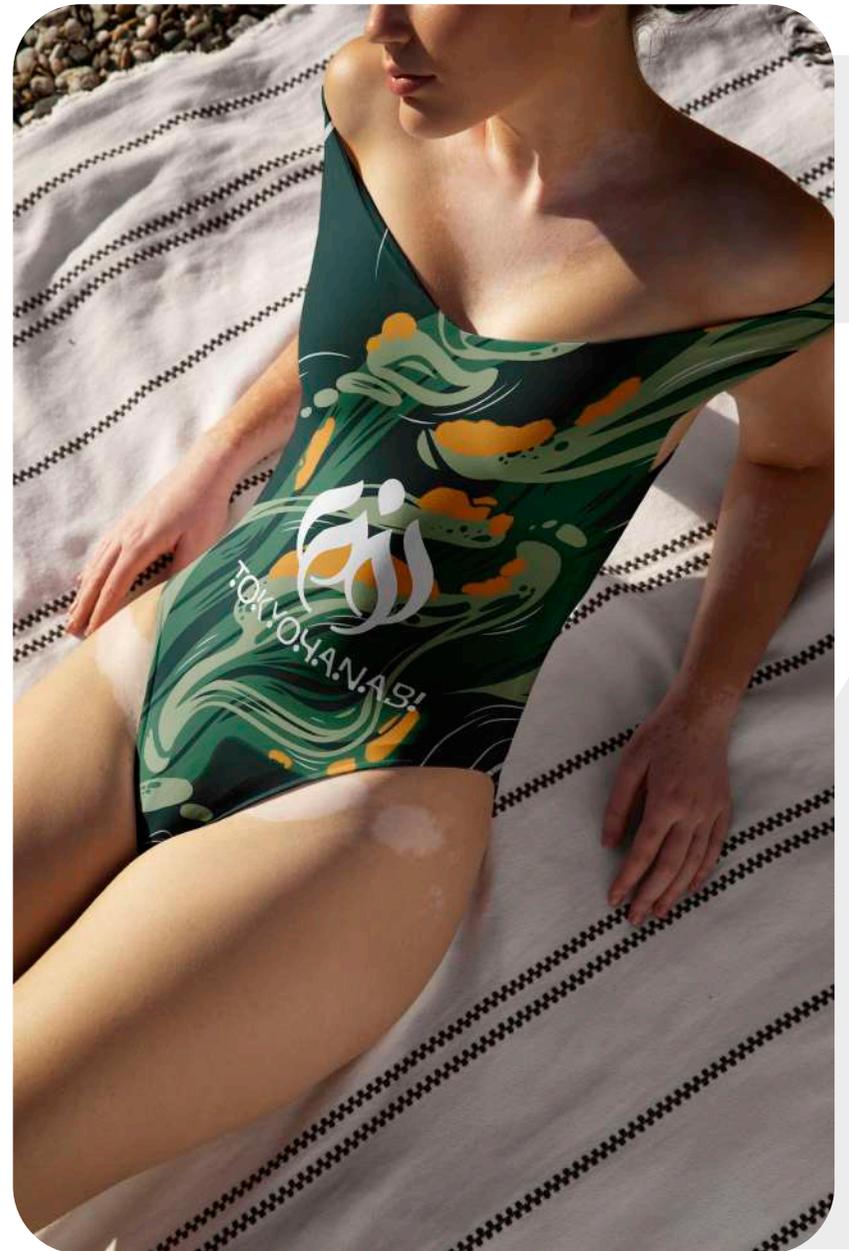

Aron is a company specializing in the production of building paints as well as designing and manufacturing materials for waterproofing and insulating buildings. The logo of the company incorporates the first letter of the brand, "A," combined with the shape of a building's roof and three primary colors, symbolizing a roof structure.

Medya is a company based in Turkey that produces raw materials for dental laboratories and dental practices. It offers high-quality, specialized dental products and hygiene supplies to its customers with the highest standards of excellence.

TokyoHanabi is a workshop and factory that produces women's lingerie using the highest quality, hypoallergenic materials, with a very high percentage of pure cotton. According to the owner, the name is inspired by a flower in Japanese, and this is reflected in the logo, where a flower icon is used. The logotype also incorporates a modern and sporty style.

White Rose is a modern Mediterranean restaurant located in Leeds, England, equipped with the latest global trends and modern amenities. The logo design for this brand reflects the historical significance of the city of Leeds and the reverence for the white rose. A luxurious and elegant typographic logo was created to emphasize the brand's connection to the city's rich history and the importance of this symbol.

Shanshin is a large tourist complex located in Iran, featuring restaurants, suites, hostels, swimming pools, and more. The logo for this complex is inspired by the elegant Nastaliq script, with a focus on luxury and opulence to reflect the grandeur of the complex.

Kadik is a company and factory that produces meat products like hamburgers, sausages, and salami. They use modern freezing tunnel technology and high-quality beef in their products. The logotype design symbolically includes elements related to their industry.

Pulk is a large holding company with eight main subsidiaries, active in real estate, construction, internet infrastructure, transportation, and more. The name comes from a strong, wild tree found in Central and East Asia. The logo design combines the tree's leaf with the sun.

Mazra is a local workshop producing salads and semi-prepared foods for retail. In Kurdish, the name "Mazra" means "farm."
