

SCRIPT TITLE: THESE ZODIAC SIGNS ARE MEAN.

TOPIC: THE ZODIAC SIGNS THAT ARE LESS TOLERANT.

Today we are going to examine the words signs of the zodiac that are meaner when you get on their bad side.

We come across so many people in our walks of life, and naturally, we gravitate towards the people we perceive as friendly and accommodating. In the same spirit, we avoid associating with people whose personalities are not accommodating. The same can be said about us by others because it's a two-way phenomenon. What you're about to watch is based solely on generic zodiac features and habits, and does not take into account the whole horoscope.

In this video, we would be looking at the particular zodiac signs that are less accommodating of others and are tagged mean. Stay tuned till the end of this episode to identify if you belong to the mean category or accommodating category of star signs.

Scorpio.

The first on the list is Scorpio. Just like the creature that represents the sign, people belonging to this zodiac can be venomous when they are provoked. Scorpio's mean and vengeful attribute makes people mistake them for a fire sign, when in fact they are a water sign. This sign is characterized by its phenomenal passion and power. When angered, best believe that a Scorpio will devise a well-laid complex plan and channel their dark side to get back at the offender. This is certain because they are always calculating and plotting pathways ahead, which will enable them to outwit anyone who offends them. Other dark sides associated with Scorpios include them being, aggressive, insensitive, manipulative, extremely dominating, sunning, and ruthless, among others. Word of advice, do not provoke a Scorpio unless you want to get stung!

Gemini.

The twin-sign are often referred to as the double-faced zodiac and are well known for being addictive liars. Be careful of associating with them because if they do not like you, they can be the mastermind of a terrible plot that would be harmful to you and you won't know until it has been executed. You can't read a Gemini easily and they don't show their emotional state, but they like to know everything about everybody. My advice is, for your sanity- do not tell a Gemini your dark secret if you don't want to end up as the talk of the town

Leo.

This zodiac with the lion sign takes pride in being the natural leader of the zodiac and is known for its self-confidence and dominance. However, when they sense disrespect coming from you, they become ferocious and seek revenge in nasty ways. They can go to the extreme and resort to lies, manipulation, bullying, and tricks to ensure they retain their superiority.

Capricorn.

Capricorns are known as one of the most hardworking zodiac signs, and they possess a strong work ethic and defined schedule. This earth sign, represented by the sea-goat, is self-reliant, diligent, and even nice and loving to those close to them. But my advice is to tread carefully because they can be very mean when they don't see you as their friend. A prominent mean trait of Capricorns is that they are unforgiving. Once you get into their bad book, they will close all the access you have to them and that is the end of the friendship. Don't bother begging for their forgiveness because that is a futile effort and they hold a grudge for as long as they are willing to. Another mean attribute of Capricorns is that they are extremely stubborn and have a ferocious temper.

Cancer.

When it comes to the emotional state of mind, Cancers are highly intelligent and manipulative. This sun sign takes advantage of the knowledge of emotions and uses it for their malicious plot of holding you hostage. When you get on their bad side, you are in for a rollercoaster ride of emotional manipulation from the masters of the art.

Aries.

When it comes to facing their fears, Aries people are bold and strong. It is important to note that they are kind, faithful, and sympathetic. They are one of the best personalities of the zodiac. But don't get too comfortable because they have negative traits and can be insensitive and mean. They are short-tempered and you never know when you get on their nerves. Also, Aries is extremely controlling and always placing their selves at the helm of affairs. You dare not decide without their knowledge or consent. If you do, best believe you are going down as a villain for the act.

On this note guys, we have come to the end of the mean zodiac signs. Let me know in the comments which one of the zodiacs you consider less revengeful and less tolerant of others.
